KITCHENS

PLANNING • TRENDS • ESSENTIALS • FINISHING TOUCHES

▲ RIGHT ANGLE Geometric patterns add interest to a sleek, modern kitchen. Made from glass, these glossy designs reflect light into the room and are easy to wipe clean. Colour Blocks Triangle tiles in Cool colourway, 237 x 335mm, £38/sq m, Ted Baker at BCT

▲ UNDERGROUND INFLUENCE Inspired by traditional tube station decor, bevelled brick-shaped tiles have become a real favourite. These ones add soft colour behind the sink. Metro Aqua, 100 x 200mm, £15.99/sq m, Tile Mountain

▲ SEAMLESS STYLE Solid surface materials are scratch-, stain- and heat-resistant. Available in different thicknesses for worktops and splashbacks, they give kitchens a sophisticated, clean-lined look. Vera ultra-compact surfacing, from £450/sq m, Dekton

▲ LOOKS NATURAL Ecofriendly, durable and fire-resistant, aluminium splashbacks are available in a range of colours and don't need any grouting. They can also be folded or bent around corners with no joints. Petrol Blue splashback, 900 x 600mm, from £109, Alusplash
