KITCHENS BATHROOMS

KITCHEN TRENDS

ITALIAN JOB

If you like the Shaker style with a contemporary slant, this matt-lacquer 'frame door' kitchen could be just what you're after. With Italian good looks, its clean lines are easy to live with, and in a soft mink colour, it's a bit different. The minimal bar handle on the base units is in a bronze finish and is the same width as the frame, so it seems to disappear. The worktop is Onice Perla porcelain and there's a breakfast bar in Nabuk Oak veneer. Carattere kitchen, from £10,000, Scavolini

SO SLEEK

If tiles aren't your thing, maybe a sleek aluminium splashback would tempt you? There are no grout lines to worry about, just a seamless finish, so it looks smart and is easy to clean. This one comes in a range of colours, so take your pick! Black splashback, from £109/panel, Alusplash

Latest gadgets

HAIRY PROBLEM

One of the worst domestic chores is getting rid of hair stuck in the vac, so a new model that removes it from the bristle brush as you clean has got to be a blessing. Shark has three models to choose from: the Anti-Wrap DuoClean; Anti-Wrap with Powered Lift Away; and the Corded Stick, from £229.99.

GET BAKING

A must-have for bakers is a stand mixer, and the KMix KMX761CH Stand Mixer, £349.99 from John Lewis & Partners, is stylish enough to leave on show. In a sleek silver finish, it has six speeds with smart speed control.
